Born in 1988, Leif Müller started DJing at the age of 15. Since then, he has followed his passion for forward thinking electronic music, exploring techno and classic house.

In 2011, Konstantin Sibold & Leif started their own event series, Common Sense People, after which their duo is named. With guest acts such as DJ Koze, Roman Flügel or Helena Hauff, this has subsequently become an institution for quality underground club music throughout southern Germany.

His first solo EP was released on Snork Enterprises' sublabel Relax2000 in 2015, after teaming up with Konstantin for tracks and remixes on Cocoon Recordings and Mobilee Records. He then followed this with an EP on the Japanese Mule Musiq in 2016.

Coming up next is a four track EP on Uncanny Valley's sublabel shtum in summer 2018.
